- Delta Air

Delta Air is a Maun-based air charter company with a versatile fleet of seven single- and two twin-engined aircraft. These light aircraft Cessna 206s and Cessna 210s and Britten-Norman Islanders are literally the work horses of the tourism industry and often the only practical way of accessing the wilderness area's of Botswana.

We offer a professional meet and greet service to all inbound and outbound passengers and try and make the transit time as short as possible.

These light aircraft carry between 5 and 9 passengers respectively, and luggage is restricted to 12 kilograms in a soft bag that will be placed in the hold or the cargo pod, and a small camera bag that fits on your lap is allowed.

Whatever your needs, be they personal or business travel, scenic flights or inter-camp transfers, Delta Air is ready to serve you 365 days of the year. In accordance with the Civil Aviation Act of Botswana all aircraft must be serviced and maintained according to this Act.

With over twenty years in the business, handling over 5,000 passengers a year and with an unblemished safety record, Delta Air has the capacity and capability to do the job.
